LIVERY DINNER

MONDAY, 5th NOVEMBER 2018
CARPENTERS' HALL, 1 THROGMORTON AVENUE, LONDON, EC2N 2JJ. at 6.45 p.m. for 7.30 p.m.

The annual Livery Dinner is being held this year in Carpenters' Hall, by kind permission of The Worshipful Company of Carpenters.

The history of the Carpenters' Company goes back over 700 years, with the first written reference to a mention of a Master Carpenter in the City of London's records of 1271. The Company, which received its first Royal Charter in 1477, has been based in London Wall since its first Hall was built there in 1429, on a site which was originally part of the estate of the Hospital of St Mary without Bishopsgate, also known as St Mary Spital. The Company's considerable influence over the building trade reduced after the Great Fire of 1666, when many timber buildings were rebuilt in brick and stone. As a result, during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the Company's links with its craft weakened and the number of members directly related to carpentry declined. However, the Company continued its ceremonial and business functions, selling and purchasing land and maintaining its charitable activities. The current Hall, designed by Clifford Wearden, was opened in 1960.

The guest speaker is Professor Richard Moorhead, Professor of Law & Professional Ethics at UCL.

This will be an excellent occasion for Liverymen to meet with colleagues and to entertain their private and professional guests.

As usual we will be drinking our own red wine, this year Château Lauduc 2010.

Tickets £110.00 each – which includes all wines, port, brandy, stirrup cup and V.A.T.

Dress – Dinner Jackets.

Closing date for applications – Friday, 26th October 2018 (no refunds are possible after this date).
