

Service for the Commencement of the Legal Year

Westminster Cathedral

Tuesday 1st October 2019 at 9.30am

Members of the judiciary, all members of the legal profession and all those whose work associates them in any way with the Courts and administration of justice, are invited to attend the Annual Service for the Commencement of the Legal Year at Westminster Cathedral, London, SW1P 1QW, on Tuesday 1st October 2019 at 9:30am.

The Mass will finish in time to facilitate the attendance of senior judges and other guests at the celebration at Westminster Abbey and the Lord Chancellor's Breakfast later in the morning.

The Celebrant will be the Right Reverend Nicholas Hudson, Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster, and the service is open to those of all denominations and faiths and none.

The service will be followed by a Reception at Archbishop's House, Ambrosden Avenue London SW1P 1QJ, for which tickets are required.

For further details about the service, and for tickets for the reception, please contact the Hon Secretary of the Thomas More Society at secretary@thomasmoresociety.org.uk. Please note that responses and applications for tickets for the reception should be returned by Wednesday 11th September 2019.
