

THE CITY OF LONDON SOLICITORS' COMPANY
Press Release

John Wotton installed as Master of the City of London Solicitors' Company for 2019/20

John Wotton is the new Master of the City of London Solicitors' Company, having been installed at the Company's AGM today.

John practised as a solicitor with Allen & Overy LLP throughout his legal career. Following his retirement from the firm in December 2012, he was appointed a Panel Member of the Competition Commission and then served as an Inquiry Chair at the CMA until this month. His City practice at Allen & Overy embraced many areas of corporate and commercial law, with a focus on EU and competition law, public procurement law and media regulation.

John said "It is a very great honour to be serving as Master of this Company and I look forward to an interesting, worthwhile and enjoyable year."

John succeeds Rupert Jones of Weil Gotshal & Manges who served as Master from June 2018 until today's AGM.

For further information or to discuss the matters raised in this press release please contact Linzi James, Clerk to the City of London Solicitors' Company (clerk@citysolicitors.org.uk)

17th June 2019

The City of London Solicitors' Company is the Livery Company for City solicitors. The Company reflects the history and tradition of the City and its institutions, but it is also a modern professional organisation with a strong track record of donating to charitable causes. The Master also serves, ex officio, as President of the City of London Law Society.

THE CITY OF LONDON SOLICITORS' COMPANY
Press Release