

FINANCIAL SERVICES GROUP OF LIVERY COMPANIES

Online Networking & Discussion Session for Young Freemen of FSG Member Companies (Aged 35 and under)

Join the Financial Services Group of livery companies for evening of online networking and discussion. Following a successful event last year, this year's session will be held online and provide a chance to get to know colleagues from firms across the City as well as younger members from a range of financial services livery companies.

Our special guest speaker will be the former Lord Mayor of London, Alderman Sir Peter Estlin, who will share his experience as Lord Mayor and life in the City. Other senior members of FSG liveries will also join us to share their wisdom of a life in banking and financial services.

With a range of guests from across the City this event provides a great chance to:

- Build your network of contacts and potential clients and share your experience of life in financial and professional services so far,
- Find out more about the City of London, livery companies and how to get involved,
- Hear from old hands in the City about what's in store as your career develops - maybe even meet a mentor!

We will hear from a range of speakers and offer breakout group discussions with the different livery companies represented.
