

An Evening with the Alderman Friday, 17th May 2024

Have you ever wondered how the City of London is run?
Do you know what the Aldermen and Common Councillors do and who they are?
Have you ever thought about getting more involved in the governance of the Square Mile?

Alderman Kawsar Zaman was elected to Bishopsgate Ward in 2022. He was the youngest member of the Court of Aldermen and the City's first Alderman from a British Bangladeshi background.

By profession, Kawsar is a practising Barrister at No5 Barristers' Chambers in London specialising in Public, Regulatory and Employment Law. He is also a former solicitor at Clifford Chance LLP and Allen & Overy where he specialised in financial services regulatory law.

Kawsar has kindly agreed to give us a guided tour of the Guildhall and host a three course dinner in the Members Private Dining Room where he will tell us about being an Alderman and answer your questions.

This will be an interactive evening with access to the members' area of Guildhall.
The tour will start at 6pm with dinner at 7.30 pm. The cost of the event is £110.
Dress code: lounge suit

Book your place via <https://www.citysolicitors.org/> or by BACS transfer to: SC
